Q.No. 1

~~Ans~~

How important is happiness to most people, and what is the relationship between material wealth and happiness?

Ans:-

Happiness is a phenomena or feelings of joy which one feel when his psychological desire is fulfilled. It is important, because it urge the peoples to do something which is source of happiness to pleasure them.

Happiness and material wealth are inversely proportional to each other.

when the demand of materialistic things increases happiness decreases. Because, material wealth takes control of one's ideas, life and distract us from our inner selves.

Q. No. 2

Ans:-

"Voluntary" denotes a free and conscious choice to make appropriate changes that will enrich life in a deeper, spiritual sense.

'Voluntary simplicity movement' sought to reduce the consumption of goods and energy and to minimize one's personal impact on the environment.

Voluntary simplicity is a

Philosophy because, it makes capable to differentiate between what we want (Psychological desire) and what one needs (basic requirements of life) and seek a healthy balance that is compatible with both.

Q. No. 3

The impact of consumerization of the modern society is that it take control of our lives and distract us from our inner selves.

Consumerism uses most of the resources and it means less resources for the next generation.

Q. No. 4

Ans:-

The difficulty for the people to reduce their consumption pattern is that cheap goods are more affordable and can easily accessible instead of good quality products which are little expensive and its hard to find them. Good quality products are more durable and can be recycle or reuse and prevent the landfills. than cheap goods which can be used one time and promote landfills.

Q. No. 5

Ans:-

The challenges to the voluntary simplicity is that people are habitual and like luxurious life style. Cheap goods which are more affordable than quality products is another challenge for voluntary simplicity.

The reward of voluntary simplicity is that it brings little satisfaction. Less consumption means more resources for future generations. Less stuff is more space to move around in. Less stress means more relaxation and better health. Less worry provides more enjoyment and more fulfillment in life.
