

Comprehension → 2003

Q#I

The nature of the troubles is financially based. Because Labour go on strike to get their colleague back to his position. Which <sup>is</sup> created the problems for the writer.

Q#II

According to writer the working condition of the electronic firm where his father worked was very uncompromising and harsh. <sup>Even</sup> Even enough strictness, that no one went on holiday for his basic needs.

Q#III

His father's colleague dismissed by owner because he took a break from his work for his marriage.

Q#IV

According to the writer's description, He and his father only talked about their surroundings and there is no exchanging of feelings and emotions among them.

Q#V

Made the Belfast Papers: made the hot news of that time.

Had a spell: had an influence

Dubbed: it means to give a nickname to something was sacked: Dismiss from employment.

Hit hard: effected badly due to strike