

Punctuation Practice Activity #1

1. The human mind is never stationary ; it advances or it retrogrades.
2. The laws of most countries , today , are split into two kinds : criminal law , and civil law
3. The announcer called out the four winning numbers as follows : three , twelve , twenty-two , and fifty six .
4. My favourite quotation was found on a slip of paper in a hotel room : "Friendship is like a baked potato . It is best when it's kept warm ."
5. They had played together in infancy , had worked together in manhood , were now bottering about and gossiping away in the evening of life , and in a short time , will & probably be buried together in the neighbouring churchyard .

Topic : My favourite Subject (present simple)

My favourite subject is Computer Science . It is a fascinating subject that is constantly evolving and offers many career opportunities . It helps me to improve my problem solving and critical thinking skills , emphasizing the importance of teamwork and collaboration . Computer Science involves practical application of theory , and encourages innovation and creativity , so due to above mentioned reasons , it is my favourite subject .

Negative Sentences

My favourite subject is not computer science. It is not a fascinating subject that is constantly evolving and offers many career opportunities. It does not help to improve my problem solving skills. Computer Science does not involve practical application of theory, and does not encourage innovation and creativity, so due to above mentioned reasons, it is not my favourite subject.

Interrogative Sentences

Is computer science my favourite subject? Is it a fascinating subject? Does it help to improve my problem solving skills? Does computer science involve practical application of theory and does encourage innovation and creativity? So due to above mentioned reasons, ~~is~~<sup>is</sup> it my favourite subject?