

Q2 (foundational significance) after the course of history. fewer still mostly the map of world today nation state. Muhammad ali Jinnah and others

Introduction

Muhammad ali Jinnah was a lawyer, politician, and statesman who is widely credited with creating the nation-state of Pakistan. Born in Karachi, British India, in 1876, Jinnah was the leader of all India Muslim League and instrumental in the creation of the Muslim-majority state of Pakistan. He served as a first governor-general of Pakistan from 1947 until his death in 1948. Jinnah was the strong advocate of the Muslim in British India, & he played a major role in the struggle for independence from the British Raj. He was the key figure in the negotiations that led to the partition of India in 1947, which resulted in two separate states. Jinnah's vision for Pakistan was of a secular, democratic nation-state, and he worked tirelessly to ensure that the new nation would be a large haven for its Muslim citizens. Jinnah's efforts to create a separate nation-state for Muslim in British India significantly altered the course of history. The actions led to the redrawing of the map of the world, as the new ~~new~~ nation-state of Pakistan was established. He is remembered as the founder of Pakistan, and his legacy continues to shape the country's politics and society today.

Jinnah's Role in Creating a Nation-State:

Jinnah's role in creating a nation-state is an important one, he played a crucial role in creation of Pakistan as he was the the main driving force behind the creation of Pakistan in 1947.

According to the historian ayyub

Jalal, Jinnah "was the only Muslim leader to have articulated a clear vision of Pakistan as a modern democratic state based on the Islamic principle of social justice."

Jinnah's leadership of the Muslim League and his advocacy of the two

The Hindu legacy and his legacy legacy is remembered in partition as "Quaid-e-Azam a great leader" and bhai-i-quran "father of nation". According to the historian Stanley Waldport, Jinnah was the only muslim among the founding fathers of India to ~~frantically~~ masterfully steer his community through the political labyrinth of the British Raj and make Pakistan a reality.

Jinnah vision of a separate muslim state:

The idea of a separate muslim state was first proposed in the late 19th century by the British-India muslim leader Syed Ahmad Khan. ~~He~~ However according to the ~~author~~ Jinnah's book, the Sir-e-Millat, Jinnah, the muslim league and men: Jinnah, the idea of the demand for Pakistan had been a separate muslim state had been present in the minds of some Muslims since the late 19th century. However, it was the vision of Muhammad Ali Jinnah, the leader of the all India muslim league, that crystallized the demand for a separate muslim state. Jinnah's vision was based on the premise that muslims were a distinct nation and thus deserved their own homeland. He argued that the muslim community was distinct from the Hindu majority and that two could not coexist in a single state. #

Jinnah's negotiations with the British.

The negotiations between the British and the Indian muslim leadership, which ultimately led to the creation of Pakistan were a complex and lengthy process. According to the historian Ayaz Ali Khan, the negotiations began in earnest in 1946 when the Muslim League, led by Muhammad Ali Jinnah, presented the British with the 'Pakistan Resolution' which called for the creation of a separate homeland

Q2 (fundamental significantly alter the course of history. fewer still) Answer he created the map of world holding nation state. Muhammad ali jinnah

Introduction

Muhammad ali jinnah was a lawyer, politician, and statesman who is widely credited with creating the nation-state of Pakistan. Born in Karachi, British India, in 1876, jinnah was the leader of all India muslim league and instrumental in the creation of the muslim-majority state of Pakistan. He served as a first governor-general of Pakistan from 1947 until his death in 1948. Jinnah was the strong advocate of the muslim in british india, & he played a major role in the struggle for independence from the british raj. He was the key figure in the negotiations that led to the partition of india in 1947, which resulted in two separate state. Jinnah vision for Pakistan was of a secular democratic nation-state, and he worked tirelessly to ensure that the new nation would be a safe haven for its muslim citizen. jinnah effort protected the right of muslim in india, which he believed were threatened by the british majority. He argued that the only way to ensure the safety and security of muslims was a creation of separate state for them. His a great vision efforts led to the partition of india and the creation of the independent states of india & Pakistan.

The redrawing of the map of the world:

The redrawing of the map of the world of the world as a result of the actions of Muhammad ali jinnah, the founder of Pakistan, is a significant event in the history. jinnah's action in the 1940s, which included his advocacy for the creation of a separate muslim state led to the partition of india and the formation of the independent nation of Pakistan. This event had far reaching implications for the geopolitical landscape of the region and beyond, and continues to shape the region's Political and Social dynamics today.

Ali, (2010). Muhammad Ali Jinnah: the making of Pakistan. Oxford university press).

Conclusion

Muhammad ali Jinnah is a Remarkable figure in the history who achieved the impossible.
He was able to create a nation state out of the British Raj, and in doing so, he changed the map of the world. His legacy will live on forever, and he will be ~~remembered~~ remembered as a leader who was able to bring together disparate groups of people and create a unified nation. His courage and determination to achieve his goals will be an inspiration to future generations. Muhammad Ali Jinnah is a true example of what one person can do when They are determined to make a difference.