Subheading: Effects of Unchecked Contacts Through Social Media on Youth

Topic Sentence: Social Media had enormous impact on youth, chief among them is undesirable effects of unchecked contacts through social media.

Reason sentence: Social media has enabled youth to get connected with people living across the world.

Supporting sentence: Using social media platforms immature minds get influenced by people living under cultures, environments, norms and ethnic values indifferent to than that of those. Parents usually do not have proper check on offspring due to either privacy concerns or growing busyness. This leads to many other psychological and health problems.

Evidence: It is matter of a common experience that today's boy/girl have many friends on social media but stays isolated from his/her bench-fellow in classroom. Recent studies suggests that 25% of 18-25 years old spends more than three hours on internet report mental illness.

Conclusion: This shows that youth is under skyrocketing influence of social media whose intensity is increasing day by day.

Paragraph:

Social Media had enormous impact on youth, chief among them is undesirable effects of unchecked contacts through social media. Social media has enabled youth to get connected with people living across the world. Using social media platforms immature minds get influenced by people living under cultures, environments, norms and ethnic values indifferent to than that of those. Parents usually do not have proper check on offspring due to either privacy concerns or growing busyness. This leads to many other psychological and health problems. It is matter of a common experience that today's boy/girl have many friends on social media but stays isolated from his/her bench-fellow in classroom. Recent studies suggests that 25% of 18-25 years old spends more than three hours on internet report mental illness. This shows that youth is under skyrocketing influence of social media whose intensity is increasing day by day.