

the political crises means the turmoil be prevailing due to political feuds.
 One of the obstacle, ^{The} which could freeze the economic growth, social stability and Socio-political maintenance.
Mid-night oil should be burnt to halt the political crises, as the outcome would be severe in the presence of such unlawful means.
 Non-political person seems to be quite interested to engulf the state into political crises rather than promoting the lawful political orders. It is the strength of politics to thwart the social problems, which can maximise social stress. To meet the people's problems to save them according to law of the land. The prime concern must be to avail the supremacy of law. In the presence of political feuds, the state both external and internal affairs would not be solved accordingly. Therefore, political turmoil must be avoided at any cost, as it give life to many diseases including the insurgency, civil war and bloodshed revolution in the state. Moreover, the stability is ~~only~~ the only medium to expand and uplift the social tranquility and social growth of the Society.

The Sociopolitical order needs amendment. The prevailing concerned order ~~is~~ failed to overcome the grievances of the people. Government prime focus is to determine the diplomatic solutions rather than focusing on the let the cannon decide policy. It would freeze the global growth, peace and stability. One of the main failure, which intensify the situation is of political feuds. Small-scale alterations are the dire need of the problem. Malign actors should be punished with capital punishment including death penalty. Because the rise in political instability would bring severe consequences. Politics and economy mingle into ~~each~~ another. For the smooth running of the economy, the political stability must be acquired to run the financial affairs. To maintain vigilance, the role of judiciary is the dire need of the hour. Judiciary would prevail stability, if the judicial set up fulfills the constitutional role. Judiciary's prime role is to guard the mother law of the land. Therefore, the active role of judiciary can maintain the constitutional provisions, upon which the constitutional framework would be strengthened to meet the constitutional rights of the people. While in presence of political instability the rights would be protected and safely saved according to law of the land. Moreover, the tranquility is gained when the rule of law prevails in the society.

According to global index, the rank Pakistan's position is in the 130th in 138 countries of the world, in the implementation of rule of law. When the law starts action, the peace is guaranteed. Because injustice beefed up the culprits rather than making civilized citizens.
However, the social fabric must not be injured, as the society is the collective asset of the people. People possess shared interests in the society. Therefore, augment role must be played by the responsible and high-profile personalities of the state to overcome the issues related to politics and economy. As the political stability is the main medium for attaining the economical growth. Furthermore, the public participation would also pave the way for the peace and calmness of the politics.

The Rise and Fall of the great powers.

Rising means achieving all that goals, which can provide facilities to the people. The enormous policies which can growth of the social and political need of the state governable authorities to be kept to boost up the social fabric of the society. While the political and social status of the economy will destroy the political and social status of the economy. The enlarging growth of economy for the enhancement of the political coordination, who would pave the way for tranquility and development of the people. Maintenance means the stability of the social and political growth. The ways which can amend the state owned possession would play a pivotal role in the development of the state. Therefore, the state must acquire such positions which can boost up the economic growth and social tranquility of the state. Policies should eliminate all that hurdles which can be the economic development of the state. The further enhancement of the economic growth of the social fabric of the society of the state.
