

Batch: _____

Name: _____

ACADEMIC PARAGRAPH STRUCTURE

(Sub-heading: _____)

Topic Sentence	Social media can have various negative effects on youth, particularly through the spread of misinformation
Explanatory or Reasoning sentence	Some individuals or groups may intentionally spread misinformation for personal or political gain which can be particularly dangerous during a public health crisis like COVID-19 pandemic.
Supporting Point (1)	Social media spread a lot of fake information during COVID-19 pandemic. Various false claims and conspiracy theories about the virus have been circulating on social media platforms, leading to confusion and skepticism
Example (1)	According to the study published in journal Nature, social media platforms like Twitter and Facebook were found to be significant source of misinformation during the pandemic contributing to the spread of misinformation about the virus and its treatment
SP 2 (optional)
Ex 2 (to be written if SP2 is given)
Concluding Sentence	In Conclusion, the potential for social media to spread false information can have serious consequences, especially in case of COVID-19 pandemic where misinformation directly impact public health.

→ about effectiveness of vaccine

(No. of words _____)