

Poverty breeds Crime Date _____

Poverty and crime is in correlation with each other. In a society, when there are no equal opportunities of income, that ~~crime~~ society strikes with criminal activities.

Poverty prevails when access to proper education and jobs is not provided to people. Such people feel themselves as disconnected from their surrounding society and get indulged in drugs, robbery and other criminal activities.

The unavailability of equal ^{fundamental} rights, racism, and ~~and~~ lack of educational awareness results in desperation and frustration which can sometimes lead to criminal behavior. This sense of exclusion from mainstream society can contribute to a lack of respect for the law and for authority figures. Poverty is often the result of larger systemic issues such as discrimination, racism and income inequality. However, poverty is not the only factor ~~for~~ ^{behind} criminal activities in a society, there are many people living in poverty do not commit crime while those committing crime must not be the one living in poverty. Therefore, It is important to address the underlying causes of poverty and crime, in order to create a safer and just community.

TRC