

Topic:

Good Governance and the role of Public Servant

Outline

Thesis statement:

The effective implementation of good governance requires commitment from the public servant to play a vital role in ensuring all the pillars of good governance.

- ① Introduction
  - a) Definition of governance
- ② An overview of good governance
- ③ Main Pillars of Good Governance
  - a) Regulatory Quality
  - b) Voice and accountability
  - c) Government effectiveness
  - d) Robust laws and practices
  - e) Equitable and inclusive distribution of resources
- ④ Role of Public Servant in Good Governance
  - a) Ensuring effective rule of law
  - b) Promoting accountability and transparency

- c) Political stability and absence of violence
- d) Ensuring property rights
- e) Enhance international trade and diplomacy
- f) Improve the quality of Education and Health facilities
- g) Promoting stable business regulations

④ Pakistan and Good Governance

a) Chandler Good Governance Index of Pakistan

b) Comparison with South Asian countries

⑤ Reasons of poor governance in Pakistan

a) Political instability

b) Lack of co-ordination among institutions

c) Lack of rule of law

⑥ Way forward to improve governance in Pakistan

a) Quality of Bureaucracy

b) Transparency and Accountability

c) Political stability and absence of violence

⑦ Conclusion