Prevailing different concept of culture in Subcontinent

Culture has two main concept formal and informal on the basis of social perspective which can be altered in societies. In fact, the issues of lifestyle cannot be handled easily in socio-economic conundrum.

However, these prevalent problems can be accepted in underdeveloped nations because they have been experiencing since intervention of East India company in subcontinent.

The cultural problems ^{were} not only prevailed there by British but also ancient civilization.

Similarly, the imperialistic life style was brought in Hindustan by the fear of British feudalism.

Resultantly, lower class in existing societies was ignored by colonialist as well as confrontation started in subcontinent and societies were divided into different classes and sects.

Thus, the British government gave a concept of capitalism to the people of subcontinent.
