

Name: Alveena Memon

Batch: 333

2023/3/15: Sat

100 words paragraph :

Why I want to become a CSP

I want to become a CSP officer because it is my dream to serve myself as a civil servant. I want to feel proud to my parents and family. I choose this profession because it is according to my taste and temperament. I am active, energetic and daring by nature. My job as a C.SP officer help me a lot in the achievement of my goals. It is secure job. It is very respectful job and it gives power and prestige for whole life. Through this job I want to serve for humanity and want to make Pakistan a better country. In short, as a CSP officer I want to fulfill my all dreams.

2023/3/17 Sat

My Favourite Subject

There are many subjects which are equally important and informative for us. But, amongst ^{among all} we choose one subject as a favourite subject according to our interest. My favourite subject is English because I love to read English stories, books and novels and also want to speak in English fluently. As we know English is our global language, so it helps me to communicate everywhere with anyone easily. This subject also helps me to improve my vocabulary, grammar and tenses which are essential for me to speak English language and express myself more clearly. It helps me to increase my analysis skills, reading capacity and it makes my imagination strong too. The subject of English helps me in personality development and enhance my communication skills. Hence, English is my favourite subject.