Global Impact of Russia

Ukraine War:

The invasion of Russia on Ukraine is very shocking. The impacts of this war are not restricted to only one country in the world. But these are massive and historic shocking impacts on world wide. Because, both countries are fertile with different natural bounties. The time Russia invaded Ukraine, had caused widespread suffering. The global economy is still enduring the consequences.

Trade Disruption is a major impact that was still recovering from the pandemic. Food stuffs became expensive, which lead to the shortage of p different types of food.

As obviously Russia is very fast and on top level in agriculture. Russia used to export wheat and sunflower. This was level of comfort for other states market, to have pure natural product on cheaper prices. But because of war, now there is a shortage in these stuffs and the prices become soared.

One of the obnoxious impact of this was is social disintegration of people on international level. Most of the diaspora lost their jobs and return to their own countries. However, students opportunity of scholarships are decreasing. Therefore, most of the countries in the world are frustrated of the impacts of Russia-Ukraine war.
