Q What is Islam?

To understand what Islam is. We have to understand the literal, contextual, and Sharia meanings of Islam.

i) Literal meaning of Islam

Islam is an Arabic word derived from the 3-letter-Arabic word, S(س)-L(ل)-M(م), which generates interrelated meanings, including, "surrender", "submission", "commitment", and "peace".

The old name of Islam was Deen-e-Hanif (from Adam to Esa)

ii) Contextual meaning of Islam

The contextual meaning of Islam is to enter in peace with God, peace within oneself, peace with all the creations of God - through wholly submitting oneself to God and accepting His guidance. Another simple definition is submission of desires to the will of God.

iii) meaning of Islam according to Sharia
According to Sharia meaning of Islam is voluntarily submitting will to Allah.
