THESIS STATEMENT.

1) Why is accepting women's freedom hard for orthodoxy?

Orthodox consider women freedom as an alienated concept that damages the socio-cultural fabric of Pakistani society. Various factors backed their thinking particularly, ~~these include~~ ^{the} patriarchal society, ~~and~~ extremism, and lack of awareness.

However, enforcement of SDG goal no 5 and measures that support women would be ~~de~~ beneficial in accepting women's freedom.

2) How can inflation in Pakistan be compared to inflation in the world.

Inflation in Pakistan is directly proportional to the inflation in the world. ~~As~~ ^{the} world is more interconnected, ~~and~~ any international Conflict has the capacity to foment inflation in Pakistan. ^{The} Skyrocketing prices ^{of hydro-carbons} due to Russia-Ukraine war has ^{an} effect of trickle-down ^{on} every commodity. Role of diplomacy in the conflict by major powers, IMF tranche to Pakistan, and export-led model ^{in Pakistan} would improve the prevailing situation.

- 3) The far-reaching effects of political instability in Pakistan. Since its inception, Pakistan has been facing ^{political} instability. The effects of instability can be seen in different sectors of Pakistan that has mire their burgeon. However, improving civil-military relations, providing education so, that paragon leader could be brought up can result into political stability in Pakistan.
