

Elaborate the concept and importance of Ijtihad and explain its principles.

INTRODUCTION :

Islam is the fastest growing religion in the world. Being a complete code of life Islam allows muslims to adopt such a method which can satisfy the muslim ummah on the issues which are hard to solved by the jurists, in the modern era. However, the concept of Ijtihad was exercised from the earliest days of Islam. Some learned companions of the Prophet (P.B.U.H) such as Abu Bakr, Umar, Ali and many others exercised Ijtihad in matters which had no specific solutions in the Quran and the Sunnah. Its sphere and importance at that time was very wide. It covered all the aspects of religion, political and civil life. Al-Quran frequently urges its readers to ponder over its verses and use their intellect to comprehend the message by this verse / indication "Why are they not using their judgement and mental capacity". Al-Quran ALSO Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H) laid / encourage this practise to unite muslim ummah so.

As a result Ijtihad has certain principle by engaging in that principles scholars are able to adapt Islamic law to the changing needs and circumstances of muslim societies while remaining faithful to the core principles of Islam.

②

ORIGIN OF THE WORD IJTEHAD.

The root word of Ijtihad is "Juhd" which means "to try or strive". It is a process in which a scholar independently strive to find answers, reasons or solutions to the problem in light of Quran and Hadith.

Imam Ghazali according to expands one's capacity in certain matter and use it to the utmost".

③

CONCEPT OF IJTEHAD

The concept of Ijtihad is rooted in the Quranic injunction to use reason and intelligence in understanding and interpreting religion teaching. The Holy Quran frequently urges its readers to ponder over its verses and use their intellect to comprehend the message. This has been further elaborated in Hadith whether the Holy Prophet reported to encourage his companions to engage in Ijtihad and independent reasoning. The Holy Prophet said "Judge upon the Book of Allah, if you don't find in it what you need, judge upon the Sunnah of the Prophet still you don't find what you need then use your personal opinion".

The Holy Prophet also said to Ameer Bin Aas "For a correct decision he would get the reward of ten good deeds and for a wrong decision the reward would be one good deed".
