

Follow the tense of the passage (past tense).

Indent the paragraph.

Journey of Art in Greece

Greeks look at the nature from different angle and ~~do~~ not allow their artists to draw the pictures of the external nature. The Author thinks people of old era were ~~not~~ interested, neither in the beauty of nature nor the hurdles that came to them in their survival. People were living along with daggers drawn animals but did not find nature friendly. ~~He don't think greeks need more attention even if they are living hard life and the only source of their happiness was the sea. In the beginning, they did not find it beneficiary. Hence, they don't like nature. So they did not~~ So, donot give proper attention to art. They were living ordinary life than complex life. After the collapse of greeks republics, people rushed into the beauty of nature and they found all kinds of art from Alexander's day onwards.

The passage is in past tense. The precis should also be in past tense. Do not use informal words such as doesn't, didn't etc. Punctuation needs improvement. Structural mistakes also found.