019 CSS Translation Pakistan is committed for peace in Afghanistan because peace in Afghanistan is very important for Pakistan. From historical perspective, being neighbourly and Islamic countries, Pakistan and Afghanistan are tied in historical, cultural and linguistic relationships. These relations are everlasting; both are interdependent and neither can live without the other. From the very beginning, Pakistan wanted political solution of Afghan issue China also supports this stance. China has said that the only solution of Afghan issue is negotiations involving Afghan leadership. For the sake of strategic partnership, Pakistan and China will play their role to resolve Afghan issue through negotiations. well done good work satisfactory 7/10 Translation passage in 2nd picture below

