Q#1 Precis:

Evolution of conditions
Title: The changing ~~life~~ of middle class.

According to ~~the~~ Besant, ~~The~~ middle class of 9th century did not belong to society. Except the armed forces, the society would accept the people who were born in the society or with family connections. A middle class knew ~~his~~ its own place, ~~and~~ it made its own society within a society and was very protective about it. Since then, the life of the middle class had changed a lot but their ~~capital~~ developed consciousness helped them to feel deeply and sympathize with the lower classes. Even though they ~~were~~ had their own connections, there were universally some universally recognized connections.

Try to use your own vocabulary as much as possible.
