

Political turmoil in Pakistan and democracy

Outline

- 1) Introduction: Thesis statement: Democracy in Pakistan is challenged by ongoing political turmoil. Such private interest based political turmoils have devalued norms of democracy. Hence, there is need of certain policies to eradicate political turmoil to protect democratic norms.
- 2) Relation between political turmoil and democracy

3- Current scenario of political turmoil in Pakistan

- a) Current Controversy between government and constitution
- b) Violation of constitution norms for private gains
- c) Heterogenous culture - disintegration of Pakistan
- d) Cycle of military and civilian rule
- e) Abuse of power and favourable laws
- f) Neglect and denial of free and fair election
- g) Illegal control of media and misuse against one another

4 Political turmoil - threat to democracy

- 1) Violation of fundamental rights and freedom of speech

b) Political turmoil - social distress enslave young's minds

c) Delay in justice and insecurity

d) A durable elites' democracy rule

e) Political turmoil suppresses forms and substances of democracy

f) Economic crisis and moral disintegration among youth

5- Methodology to eradicate political turmoil in Pakistan

a) Immediate free and fair election

b) Improve social and economic conditions by removing political disturbances

c) Framing policy to value democratic substances and public favourable forms

d) Free and unbiased role of media in making digital democracy