

18/5/2022

Does poverty lead to crime?

Outline

1. Introduction
2. Crunch Paragraph
3. Why poverty leads to crime?
 - a. Poverty causes desires.
 - b. Financial insecurity gives rise to the ideas of committing crimes.
 - c. Greed for money and luxurious life.
 - d. Unemployment and low income.
 - e. Sense of insufficiency in front of the family members.
4. Crimes are not merely associated with poor people.
 - a. Wealthy businessmen and politicians do corruption.

- b. Income inequality ~~leads to~~ ^{increases} crime rate.
- c. Limited opportunities gives rise to the criminal minds.
- d. Lack of education incites people for violation of rules.
- e. Family structure causes an increase in crime rate.

5. Poverty causes more evils than any other societal issue.

- a. A child coming from poor family has more desires than any other person.
- b. To make both ends meet, people commit crimes.
- c. Lack of money and facilities increases crime rate.
- d. It becomes easier to choose wrong path due to no job and low income.
- e. Sense of insufficiency always mentally disturbs people more than coming from a single-parent family.

6. Conclusion