

Argumentative Essay Outline

Date: 2nd May, 2023.

Topic: Does poverty lead to crime?

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

2. Crunch paragraph

3. Poverty leads to crime (Thesis)

a) People whose basic needs are not fulfilled commit crime

b) Things which cannot get by legal means, they try to get them by illegal means.

c) Poverty leads to high temper which cause the poor to commit violent crimes.

d) Poverty causes feeling of hatred towards the elite class

e) Due to financial crisis, they lag behind high quality education and good job opportunities.

4. Poverty does not lead to crime (Anti-thesis)

a) Not all the poor commit crime, they live life ^{even} with having less resources even.

b) Instead of taking wrong path, they prefer small works to get money by legal way.

c) The upper class ^{People} also get high tempered and commit violent crimes

d) Even rich people look down on the poor.

e) There are various fields to facilitate unskilled and illiterate people.

5. Poverty has always been a role in crime in many cases (Synthesis)

- a) Life living without standards lead the poor to crime in this era, even if they do not want
- b) Financial crisis has pushed the people into crimes in this period of inflation
- c) The poor also want to have comforts of life for which they commit crime like smuggling
- d) People who do not have much knowledge are involved in crimes due to unawareness of laws.
- e) People living in unpleasant surroundings due to unemployment and financial issues are likely to become criminals.

6. Conclusion

Expository Essay Outline

Topic: Brain drain is the biggest loss for a nation

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

2. Crunch paragraph

3. Main causes of the brain drain

- a) People face poor/low quality of living in society
- b) Limited access to facilities
- c) Most of the people are unemployed
- d) People face political instability
- e) Rule of law and discipline not followed
- f) Too much restrictions from family and society

4. Effects of brain drain

- a) Shortage of potential workers
- b) Loss of innovative and creative ideas
- c) Country gets deprived of talented people who are proven useful to others.
- d) Reduced quality of education and health
- e) Decrease in revenue and tax collection
- f) Less growth of country
- g) ~~Negative~~ impact on new generation

5. How to overcome brain drain

- a) To improve/advocate educational reforms
- b) By providing good job opportunities
- c) To address political, economical ~~to~~ and social issues
- d) By providing multiple and good facilities to citizens

6. Conclusion

Topic: We are not known by what we are, but by what we say.

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

2. Crouch paragraph

3. Language has a great influence on everyone

a) Choice of words depicts on your personality

b) Your good way of talk make the people convince that your upbringing and training has been good

c) Your words make your identity, the more you speak politely the more you get response back in a polite manner

d) "Words are potent weapons for all causes, good or bad."

e) A good language represents a good culture

f) "We become what we say"

4. Good environment has great influence on human being

a) A man is known by the company he keeps

b) Good things will be done if the pleasant surrounding is provided by positive thoughts

c) Pleasant environment improves mental well-being

- d) The more healthy a society is, the more progressive it will be in various aspects
- e) Harmonious relations with each other always leads to peace
- f) Good words have a good effect always

5. Language is a medium through which a society displays

- a) A tool through which good relationships develop
- b) Through language, your ideas are addressed
- c) You have given freedom of speech so that you can raise your voice for yourself
- d) Words are your power through which you rule on hearts of people
- e) Language is the medium through which human beings and animals differentiate

6. Conclusion