

The Taste of Lie

Jesting Pilate asked what is truth, but would not stay for answers. That would count to fix a belief that affecting the free will of thinking and acting. Philosophers of his kind gone, some remain to listen the truth. It is not only difficult to find the truth, but also to impose it on mind love to tell lie. Gracian school examined the matter, that men not only tell lie for benefit but for the sake of lie. Truth is ~~not~~ naked and open day light, still does not show Masques, mummings and triumph of the World. Truth come the price of pearls, ~~but~~ not rise the price of diamond. Men love to listen the false tales of vain opinion, imagination but not reluctant and lack of enthusiasm opinion. A father called the poetry of vinum daemonum is filled with imagination and ~~the~~ shadow of lie.
