

Half century has passed but still Pakistan is unable to make Constitution strong. Long military rule was a perilous for the constitution. Constitution for them was just a ~~piece~~ piece of paper. Besides this, Zia's Islamization increased extremism. Also, some amendments from civil leaders were against the democratic values. 8th amendment was against the democratic values. Musharraf's Article 58 (2) (b) increased the power of present.

The 18th amendment has proved beneficial as it strengthened the center-province relations.

Article 58 (2) (b) was abolished. Free education for the girls and boys of age 5-16 years was made compulsory. Hopefully in the coming days democracy will flourish.
