Focus on Your Goals in Place of its Pleasure.

Precis:

There is no doubt that, a well-educated man is not give so much importance to money. It is true that money is so important.
All healthy minded people like making money and ought to like it.
But the main object of educated person is to serve their duty more than its pay. A soldier prizes honour to his work rather than his salary, same like as clergyman who serve for welfare of mankind than his reward. Thus with all well-educated, intellectual persons, their work is first and the next is money.
