Q1- Write a precis of following passage and suggest a suitable title:

Manto was a victim..... sombre enthusiasm.

Exposing social classes by Manto

Manto was a victim of social hypocrisy having duplicity, mental problem. His writings were blamed of vulgarity and immorality. But like Freud, he remained determined in exposing the sex passion of depressed people like labourers and prostitutes without hypocrisy. According to him, man is a mixture of both angel and devil behaviours. In his writings, he communicated with these people by raising social equality between social classes and socio-moral issues of them. He highlighted the duplicity of human behaviours about social classes. He was aware of man's weaknesses so he treated vulgarly artistically. Such people can relate themselves with his writings.
