" We are not known by what we are, but by what we say "

1 Introduction
Thesis statement: The skill of communication is the divine gift of God to humans, we communicate, interact and convey our thoughts by means of speech. The effective words renders everlasting impact on people, potraying not only, the positive image of the speaker but also his family, culture and soceity

2) Crunch Paragraph

3) Personality of a person influencing his code of conduct.
   (a) Good communication skills.
   b) Language as means of contact.
   c) Acclimation in different environment.
   d) Choice of words for good identity.
   e) Code of conduct for self expression
   f) Cons of lacking good communication skills

4) Influence of surrounding in development of good conduct of person
   a) Family influence in good communition skills
   b) Influence of education
   c) Environment role in a person's good conduct
   d) Religious impacts on a person
   e) Friends' circle influencig communication skill
   f) Cultural influence on our thoughts

5) Language as medium for the flow of thoughts
   a) Language for social acceptance
   b) Language for employment

c) Language for developing good relationship

(d) Impact of poor code of conduct on personality

CONCLUSION

Please give me remarks, suggestions & marks as well. Thanks.

→ THESIS STATEMENT
"Sometimes we donot see what we see" ↳ Humans perceive image through the sense of sight, it only depicts what has been shown to it, however all the things that we see are not meant to portray the real motive behind that fake appearence. Misperception leads a person toward harmfull consequences, Hence we need to see both the facets of a coin.

• Classrooms "decides the future of the nation"

THESIS STATEMENT: Students are a real asset of nation. The proficient protege becomes the most influential part of the society, paving direction towards its betterment. By improving pedagogy and aproach to advance technology in class room, the future of student can be flourished, resulting in a developed nation.