

Polarized Politics in Pakistan and its complications

Outline

1- Introduction: Thesis statement; Pakistan is revolving in a continuous cycle of polarized politics. Contemporary rise of polarized politics is due to different ideological extreme. This rampant rise of polarized politics has devalued democratic, economic, ^{and} social norms. Therefore, some effective strategies must be adopted to curtail polarized politics for better future of Pakistan.

2- A bleak picture of polarized politics

3- Current scenario of polarized politics in Pakistan

- a) Controversy and disintegration among political parties at center and provincial level
- b) Abuse of political power against legal norms
- c) Neglecting of free and fair election
- d) Misuse of institution for personal interests
- e) Over-consciousness about favorable laws and amendments
- f) Curtailment of freedom of social media and false reports
- g) Violation of constitutional values - misuse of the 18th amendment

4- Polarised politics - threat to democratic structure and progress in Pakistan

- a) Devaluation of forms and substances of democracy
- b) Short-sighted government - violation of fundamental rights and public policy
- c) Weakens judicial power and capacity
- d) Social turbulence and weak human development
- e) Economic downfall and at brink of default
- f) Morally decline of the nation and rampant tide of crimes

5- Strategy to combat political polarisation to escape Pakistan's future

- a) Ensure supremacy of constitution
- b) Empower judiciary, institutions, and civil service
- c) Promote social revolution and awareness through education and students union council
- d) Support unbiased role of media to protect democratic norms