

Topic : We are not known by who we are , but by what we say

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

Words have energy & power with ability to help, to heal, to hinder, to hurt, to harm, to humiliate & to humble. The worth of man lays in his words, not in physical appearance. Keeping the words add value to the every aspect of man's life. (45 words)

2. Crunch Paragraph

3. Keeping your words is about

A man is a man to the extent that he sticks by his word

- a. It builds credibility, trust & self accountability
- b. It is about respecting yourself.
- c. Makes a man more valuable & dependable in the family.
- d. Showing that you have a well established behaviour.
- e. Showing families of good moral character.
- f. Built great confidence

4. Every man of courage is a man of his words.

- a. Honest have significant importance in social & professional interaction
- b. Helps in establishing a reputation in personal life as well as at work.
- c. Fulfilling commitments with others gives higher level of satisfaction.
- d. Sense of personal honor & self respect are deeply integrally tied to words.
- e. Making a man superior & reliable in the society
- f. Your word is your loyalty & professionalism.

5. Growing up, I was taught a man's word is his bond.

- a. Integrity, courage, standing with the point are the leadership qualities which flex their influence.
- b. Prophet (SAW) was called the man of his own words.
- c. Only word of mouth was considered a binding contract in the past.
- d. By keeping the promises, we get a respectable position in the world.

Date: _____

Day: _____

e. Brings discipline to every

e. A good code of life.

b. Conclusion.