Dear Brother,

I hope this letter will find you in best of your health and mood. I am writing you as I am quite concerned regarding your preparation in the upcoming PMS
examination.

It has been six months that you
are preparing for this examination.
Despite critical financial situation,
Dad and I are sending you money on regular basis; so that you can properly focus on your studies.

We are hopeful that you are studying faithfully and passionate to clear the examination. It is a fact that it is not easy to crack this examination, but do not forget that success is for those who work hard, and have believe in Allah Almighty.

I advise you to take coaching for those subjects in which you are feeling weak; otherwise there is no supplement to self study and hard work.

At this crucial time, you should remain dedicated and motivated. Please, keep on writing to mom and dad as they are quite concerned regarding you.

Your lovely Brother,
X. Y. Z
