

① Prepare Charter of Governance not Charter of Economy

Topic
Sentence

Without solving governance issues, economic problems of Pakistan cannot be fixed.

Reason/
Explanation

Inspiring from ²⁰⁰⁶ Charter of Democracy in Pakistan, many think that Charter of economy is the panacea for all huge problems of Pakistan, yet this is not the case.

Supporting Point

Since by imposing technocrats ~~even~~ the issues, usually included in Charter of Economy cannot be ^{resolved} addressed.

Example

For, Charter of Economy is only one part of the Charter of Governance which ~~we Pakistan~~ ^{is} urgently needed to Pakistan (Niaz Mustafa, Charter of Economy, May 2003)

Concluding
Sentence

Thus, It would rather that government fixed governance issues first.

2) Prefer Regional Friends over US

Topic Sentence Pakistan should not compromise its friendly ties with its regional friends for obeying ^{the} US.

Reason/Explanation History bears witnesses that Pakistan always tries to treat super power as it should be.

Supporting Point But changing ^{international politics} global trends are demanding sacrifices of national interests from Pakistan, if it remains prostrating the global policy maker, whereas even some of the staunchest American allies — Saudi Arabia, India and ^{the} UAE — have refused to take ^{the} US dictate on how they should conduct relations with regional powers.

Example In a recently leaked document, PM aide can also be listened heared counseling PM Shahbaz Shij against supporting a US-sponsored anti-Russian revolution in the US General Assembly linked to obtain work, warning that this move would imperil Pakistan's potential trade and energy relation with Moscow. Also, in the Discord leaks released by an American airman, in a memo — dubbed "Pakistan's Difficult Choices" — the State Minister of Pakistan Hina Rabani Khar is also argues that trying to appease the west would negatively effect this country's "real strategic" ties with China, (Decision Time, Dawn, May 2023).

Concluding
Sentence

Hence, Pakistan will have to hold the hands of its regional friends tightly though for its national interests though it moderates relation with the US.

Pakistan will have to maintain its bilateral ties with both ^{the} US and China.

The emerging regional power China and unwanted interference of the US in South Asian matters have created a difficult situation for Pakistan whether it should side ^{line} the global power or its ^{regional} ~~loyal~~ friend.

No more a liveable place

1.5

Explanation

Supporting point

Evidence

Pakistan is no more a liveable place.

The reason is all the pillars^{of the state}, either provincial or federal, have been damaged from within. And to put plaster on this impaired system when Imran Khan stepped in, he has been put behind the bars.

Resultantly, countrywide protests have been started.

Since the coalition government has ousted Imran Khan, one after the other, reality of each state's institution of the state has exposed.

Thus, neither military nor judiciary could maintain its dignity. Also, the populist narrative of Mo Khan has solidified the corrupt view of the elite ruling class in the minds of the public.

So, ~~supremacy~~ of the state of law will no more seem into this state as ^{the} public, especially PTE supporters, will do what ^{will} seem ~~the~~ it right.

Hence, PakiStan is no more a liveable place.
