Paragraph: My Favorite Subject

My favorite subject is Pakistan Studies as I come to know what happened in the past, what is happening, and what can happen in the future regarding the state of Pakistan. The making of Pakistan shows a story full of sacrifices, hardships, and difficulties that the founders of Pakistan faced. Studying Pakistan history gives me the realization that this country has ~~sacrificed~~ sacrificed a lot before its inception. ~~Studying~~ Secondly, studying Pakistan the insights regarding what injustices happened with our country, and what mistakes the that time rulers committed, which are now reflecting in the form of pretty pity situation of Pakistan. Moreover, I also get the privilege to forecast what will happen in the future by keeping in view the history and present of Pakistan. That's why I like to study Pakistan as I get awareness about its affairs.
