

Sub-heading: Wastage of food in Pakistan

Along with, flood and heavy rain, wastage of food is also a significant problem for Pakistan. The wastage of food is adding fuel to the fire to already flood affected country to further food insecurity. This wastage of food is affecting not only country's population but also country's economy. According to the report by the Ministry of National Food Security Research, Pakistan yearly wastes 26-percent of its food production yearly worths 4-billion dollars. To sum ^{up} ~~up~~ wastage of food is not only hurting Pakistan's population but also its economy.