

class

Sick human capital in Pakistan

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Pakistan is a developing country. It is fallen in sick human capital. Several challenges to human capital has brought negative impacts. However, government can improve its human capital by implementing its policies.

2- Human capital is foundation of sustainable development

3- Challenges to human capital in Pakistan

- a) Drug crisis is common impact on human health in Pakistan
- b) Lack of subsidy in healthcare system
- c) Rapid and unplanned urbanization
- d) Low children and women literacy rate in Area
- e) Insecurity is threat to human's mobility
- f) Political turmoil breaches social values

4- Sick face of human capital in Pakistan

- a) Child and maternal ongoing mortality
- b) Regionally decline health rank weakens economic stability
- c) Poverty and illiteracy move together
- d) Number of children are deprived of education
- e) Jobless future and ugly crimes
- f) Physical health of mental illness
- g) Negative international image

5- Methodology to improve human capital in Palestine

- a) Attract for regional and international funds to reform health and education
- b) Focus on sufficient budget and provide 'SEHAT CARD'
- c) Family planning awareness especially in rural areas
- d) Enhance children and women's education

6- Conclusion