Translation

If the world does not fascinate you, if fear of Allah does not bring tears in your eyes, if the image of hell scares you, if you pray the way it is desired to be, if good deeds attract you and you prevent to go towards evil, it means that you are pious. Some people are pious, some try to be pious. Being pious is an element of good luck. Becoming pious is an element of purification and struggle. It requires time and you have to bear pain.
