Date: 13th May 2023

Dear Friend,

Hope you are doing well. I am writing you to inform you regarding my result in PMS examination. I hope you have not forgotten that I appeared in PMS examination few months ago. You repeatedly kept on asking me regarding my results until you stopped asking it.

Now, PPSC has announced the result, and luckily I have secured my allocation by getting 25th position. It is quite momentous and unbelievable for me.

At this moment of great happiness. It would be great pleasure for me to enjoy your company. I hope you will soon come to congratulate me, and we will have a great fun together.

Once again, I am anxiously waiting for Aeyou. Try to inform me regarding your arrival, as early as possible. So that I can make other arrangements accordingly.

With love and gratitude,
X.Y.Z.
