

We are not known by what we are, but by what we say

This part is ignored altogether in thesis statement/essay

1) Introduction

Thesis statement: The skill of communication is the divine gift of God to humans, we communicate, interact and convey our thoughts by means of speech. The effective words render everlasting impact on people, portraying not only the positive image of the speaker but also his family, culture and society.

2) Paragraph

3) Words/speech Personality of a person influencing his code of conduct.

- (a) Good communication skills.
- b) Language as means of contact.
- c) Acclimation in different environment.
- d) Choice of words for good identity.
- e) Code of conduct for self expression
- f) Cons of lacking good communication skills

4) Influence of surrounding in development of good conduct of person

Irrelevant

- a) Family influence in good communication skills
- b) Influence of education
- c) Environment role in a person's good conduct
- d) Religious impacts on a person
- e) Friends' circle influencing communication skill
- f) Cultural influence on our thoughts

5) Language as medium for the flow of thoughts

- a) Language for social acceptance
- b) Language for employment expression?

c) Language for developing good relationship
(d) Impact of poor code of conduct on personality

Faulty understanding of topic

Attempt again

CONCLUSION

Please give me remarks, suggestions & marks as well. Thanks.

Ponder over the topics carefully to understand them clearly, correctly and completely.

→ THESIS STATEMENT
Sometimes we do not see what we see"
Humans perceive images through the sense of sight, which only depicts what has been shown to it, however all the things that we see are not meant to portray the real motive behind that fake appearances. Misperception leads a person toward harmful consequences, hence we need to see both the facets of a coin.

Classrooms "decides the future of the nation"

THESIS STATEMENT: Students are a real asset of nation. The proficient protege becomes the most influential part of the society. Paving direction towards its betterment. By improving pedagogy and approach to advance technology in class rooms, the future of students can be flourished, resulting in a developed nation.

Learn to hit the nail on the head in your writing rather than skirting around your intended point.