

Polarized Politics in Pakistan and its complications

Outline

Introduction: Thesis statement; Pakistan is revolving in a continuous cycle of polarized politics.

Contemporary rise of polarized politics is due to different ideological extremes. This rampant rise of polarized politics has devalued democratic, economic, ^{and} social norms. Therefore, some effective strategies must be adopted to curtail polarized politics for better future of Pakistan.

2- A bleak picture of polarized politics in Pakistan

3- Current scenario of polarized politics in Pakistan

- a) Controversy and disintegration among political parties at center and provincial level
- b) Abuse of political power against legal norms
- c) Neglect of free and fair election ← Put under 4
- d) Misuse of institution for personal interests
- e) Over-consciousness about favorable laws and amendments
- f) Curtailment of freedom of social media and false reports
- g) Violation of constitutional values - misuse of the 18th amendment → Specify

Causes of polarized Pol are not discussed in subsequent outline.

4- Polarized politics - threat to democratic structure and progress in Pakistan

- a) Devaluation of ~~values~~ and substance of democracy
- b) Short-sighted government - violation of fundamental rights and public policy
- c) Weakens judicial power and capacity
- d) Social turbulence and weak human development
- e) Economic downfall and at brink of default
- f) Moral decline of the nation and rampant ~~side of~~ crimes

National narrative is slaughtered at the altar of individual-centric politics.
Horse trading becomes rampant in polarized politics
Economic instability due to clashing policies of different governments.....

5- Strategy to combat political polarization to escape Pakistan's future

- ✓ a) Ensure supremacy of constitution
- b) Empower judiciary, institutions, and civil service
- c) Promote social revolution and awareness through education and students union council
- d) Support unbiased role of media to protect democratic norms

Restrict political party formation laws to curb polarization

6. CONCLUSION

Stay focused on topic, all parts of it, while writing thesis statement (t.s)
Link all main points of t.s and all sub points to main points