

Maryam Shehzadi.

Precis

Title:-

Focus on Your Goals in Place of their Pleasure.

Precis:

There is no doubt that a well-educated man does not give so much importance to money. It is true that money is so important.
All healthy minded people like making money and ought to like it.
But the main object of an educated person is to serve their duty more than its pay. A soldier prizes honour to his work rather than his salary. same like a clergyman who serves for welfare of mankind than his reward. Thus, with all well-educated, intellectual persons, their work is first and the next is money.

Do not explain examples in precis, just give their gist. Idea is generally ok.

Subject verb disagreement found.

Spelling and grammar mistakes identified.

Use your own vocabulary as much as possible, without borrowing phrases from the original passage.