

shea

Attempt Again

Mataika Suleman

Batch - 41

Topic: We are not known by what we say but what we do.

OUTLINE

The topic is abstract, you have to correlate person's words forming his or her identity or their actions.

1- Introduction

Thesis statement

The following outlines seems to go off the track and discusses how a personality is shaped overall, ignoring the topic's requirements. See the thesis statement in the end and make outline according to that

2- Crunch Paragraph

3- Transformation of thoughts since childhood, leading to different personal preferences in life.

a) Transformation of morals, personality, intentions and profession in one's life.

b) Life is equally, "lose it or win it" game for every individual.

c) Parental influences have a direct impact on the development of individual's mind.

d) Family wants to secure individual's future and worldly success.

e) Continuously changing family obligations can subtly or dramatically affect personal choices.

f) Elders impose ^{high} expectations on the shoulder of Topic: We are not known by what we say but by what we do.

Thesis Statement: Human life requires action to make it meaningful. However, all actions are prompted after a clear formulation of the idea in words. Some people have a false belief that words are supreme rather the action. (35)

d) Relying on future choices based on trends.

e) Are future choices made by the individual are sustainable for the economy of state.

f) East professions vs West professions

6- Conclusion