

We should face facts as they exist. We are multilingual it is true, and every poor country too. The fear of getting employment or not getting employment springs, out of that poverty of ours. But once we took courage in both hands and began to work, poverty would vanish, and then those languages which have created a narrow regional spirit instead of being the curse that they seem to us today, would function as magnificent vehicles of expression for the rich variety of cultural patterns. Let us hope that day dawned very soon. A regional language as the medium of instruction can facilitate the process of education. It helps the child to learn with ease and ~~into~~ interest. But if it is thrust on an unwilling minority used to another allied language, it can vitiate the very process of education. It is supposed to help and would create difficulties of a socio-political nature. (180 words)

Title: Basic Rights for Regional Education, A Country of Multi-lingual Peoples, Multi-language is tool for development.

It is a fact <sup>that</sup> we are living in <sup>a</sup> multi-lingual and poor country with fear of unemployment. But once we took brave step, we could <sup>alleviate</sup> ~~sweep~~ the poverty, and those languages would function as an important medium for development. A regional language in basic education can help <sup>the</sup> child to understand easily. But when <sup>a</sup> different language is forced on minority, it can spoil the starting process of child's education. (68 words)

Cohesion missing. Use of first person is strictly prohibited in precis.