

Mashay

ASIF HAROON

Topic: As? it is the time for Revolution in Pakistan?

1- Introduction:

✓ Thesis Statement.

↳ What kind? Pol, Eco or Soc?

2- Crunch Paragraph:

3- Problems of Pakistan, which may become ingredients for revolutions:

a- Violations of human right on a large scale.

b- Extreme political polarisation in society.

c- Worst economic conditions in the country.

d- Soaring inflation rate in the country.

e- Presence of sensitive and active youth.

f- Lack of peace in the country.

Rule of law

4- How is it not the accurate time for a revolution in Pakistan?

a- Activeness of the judiciary on human rights violations. ✓

b- Completion of the government's tenure. ✓

c- Negotiations with the IMF regarding loans are underway. ✓

d- High inflation rate world wide.

e- Bulge of uneducated and directionless youth. ✓

f- Pakistan have strong security institutions. ✓

Not all revolutions bring beneficial change i.e. Arab spring

5. How is it the accurate time for a revolution in Pakistan?

a- Increase in violations of Human rights Cases. ✓

Falls under point 4 because if situation not new then no need for revolution, only required if unprecedented circumstances

~~b-~~ Political polarisation is not new.

c- Loans give temporary support ~~for~~^{to} the economy.

~~d-~~ Governments gives support to lower class world wide

Relevancy to main point 5?

~~e-~~ youth get basic education from social media.

6- Conclusion:-

Good effort, read more to add more significant points