

marshad

Topic : We are not known by who we are , but by what we say

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

md

Words have energy & power with ability to help, to heal, to hinder, to hurt, to harm, to humiliate & to humble. The worth of man lays in his words, not in physical appearance. Keeping the words add value to the every aspect of man's life. (45 words)

The identity of a man is shaped by

2. Crunch Paragraph

3- Keeping your words is about

A man is a man to the extent that he sticks by his word

- a. It builds credibility, trust & self accountability
- b. It is about respecting yourself.
- c. Makes a man more valuable & dependable in the family.
- d. Showing that you have a well established behaviour.
- e. Showing families of good moral character.
- f. Builds great confidence

Outline does not explain all points of thesis statement

Synonymous points

4. Every man of courage is a man of his words.

- Honest have significant importance in social & professional interaction
- Helps in establishing a reputation in personal life as well as at work.
- Fulfilling commitments with others gives higher level of satisfaction.
- Sense of personal honor & self respect are deeply ~~and~~ integrally tied to words.
- Making a man superior & reliable in the society
- Your word is your loyalty & professionalism.
 avoid personal pronouns

5. Growing up, I was taught a man's word is his bond.

- Integrity, courage, standing with the point are the leadership qualities which flex their influence.
- Prophet (SAWI) was called the man of his own words.
- Only word of mouth was considered a binding contract in the past.
- By keeping the promises, we get a respectable position in the world.

Understanding of topic is not clear and complete

Date: _____

Day: _____

e. Brings discipline to every

e. A good code of life.

b. Conclusion.

Attempt Again