

Dated:

Does

Topic: Poverty lead to crime?

outline

1) Introduction

2) Thesis statement

2) Crunch paragraph

(Thesis)

3) Poverty is a leading cause of crime

a) Deprivation from the basic needs of life provoke an individual for committing crime

b) lack of education and awareness is a reason of committing crime

c) Apart from fulfilling basic needs, people commit crime to make good their life style

d) unemployment also leads to crime

e) Ignorance of parents or lack of proper ^{upbringing} brought up leads to crime

~~4) Poverty alone not only lead to crime~~

4) Poverty alone ^{does} not lead to crime (anti-thesis)

a) Not every deprived person commit crime, but arrange their needs in very limited resources?

b) sometimes very well educated person commit heinous crime

c) People commit crime for making more money

d) People commit crimes, because they know will rescue themselves?

e) Society contributing ^{to} committing crime

5) Poverty with other loop/holes of society lead to crime (synthesis)

- a) people fed up from long deprivation of basic needs ~~by~~ do not
- b) Due to illiteracy, people do not know their rights for which they commit crime
- c) Due to inferiority complex, and not compromise on their ego
- d) Acquisition of legal job is time taking and need talent and dedication
- e) In poverty, parents think to provide meal for their children not get time to focus on their brought-

6) Conclusion