Date: 13th May 2023.

Dear Friend,

Hope you are doing well. I am writing you to inform you regarding my result in PMS examination. I hope you have not forgotten that I appeared in PMS examination few months ago. ~~You repeatedly kept on asking me regarding my results until you stopped asking it.~~

Now, PPSC has announced the result, and luckily I have secured my allocation by getting 25th position. It is quite momentous and unbelievable for me.

At this moment of great happiness, it would be a great pleasure for me to enjoy your company. I hope you will soon come to congratulate me, and we will have a great fun together.

Once again, I am anxiously waiting for you. Try to inform me regarding your arrival, as early as possible. So that I can make other arrangements accordingly.
