

18/5/202

Does poverty lead to crime?

Outline

1. Introduction

2. Crunch Paragraph

3. Why poverty leads to crime?

a. Poverty causes desires. → Relevance to crime?

b. Financial insecurity gives rise to the ideas of committing crimes.

c. Greed for money and luxurious life.

d. Unemployment and low income.

e. Sense of insufficiency in front of the family members.

→ Create a direct link b/w poverty and crime

4. Crimes are not merely associated with poor people.

✓ a. Wealthy businessmen and politicians do corruption.

b. Income inequality ^{increases} ~~leads to~~ crime rate.

c. Limited opportunities gives rise to the criminal minds.

d. Lack of education incites people for violation of rules.

e. Family structure causes an increase in crime rate.

Where is crime in it?

5. Poverty causes more evils than any other societal issue.

a. A child coming from poor family has more desires than any other person.

b. To make both ends meet, people commit crimes.

c. Lack of money and facilities ~~increases~~ crime rate.

d. It becomes easier to choose wrong path due to no job and low income.

e. Sense of insufficiency always mentally disturbs people more than coming from a single-parent family.

6. Conclusion

This is an argumentative essay so give only arguments in the subheadings, not merely assumptions