Real Islamization in Pakistan

Such as?

Pakistan is the only country on the globe which has its foundation on the basis of a religion, Islam. Therefore, numerous efforts were sincerely made to establish Islamic system in the country with firm and formidable foundation. In spite of all initial strives, the real Islamization process commenced in 1977, during the reign of Zia. During this era and enactments, a number of ordinances were issued, such as Haddud ordinance, Qadaf ordinance, Zakat and Usher ordinance, The Sanctity of Ramadan ordinance and Ban on Naughty ordinance. Moreover, Federal Shariat Board was established to solve the issue of people in the light of Quran and Hadith. Thus, Islamization in Pakistan was not merely a mouth-words, but rather a real phenomenon.
