

precise - 20

Indent the paragraph.

Nizar's love for his Motherland.

Nizar Hassan, a renowned documentary filmmaker, was born in 1960 and brought up in Mashhad, near ~~Iran~~.

After his graduation in Anthropology, started job in T.V. but soon switched <sup>to</sup> towards Cinema. In 1994, he produced "Independence" in which <sup>Palestinians</sup> Palestinian was instigated against Israelis.

The world was made aware of the Israeli annexation through this film and soon <sup>he came</sup> come up with another film. It was named "My Grandfather's Pain" - all about how to choose your enemy.

According to the author, he (Nizar) ~~made me aware~~ educated <sup>him</sup> me about the Zionist encroachment and how she was <sup>trapped</sup> trap into it and then how he found a poetic salvation to it. Hassan's films were dejected and much bothered by the illegal Israeli occupation

1-1-2020

thus, the film crafted masterfully and imaged through Aljawera with the name of "Palestinian epic ode to his homeland."

word count
original = 350
precise = 128.

The precis is long. Do not include irrelevant details. The central idea not comprehended.

One should choose one's enemy carefully, and one should not hate one's enemy so as to become like them.