

Masha

Women universities as agents of change

1- Introduction

Thesis statement?

2- Historical view of women universities as an agent of change.

3- Women universities an agent of social and educational changes.

a. Breaking social stigma and taboos.

b. Contributing extensively in modern research and development.

c. Ensuring high quality education standard and high ^{women} enrollment.

4- A hub of economic growth

a. Imparting skill development: Bangladesh a case study.

b. Enhancing entrepreneurship: Huza a case study.

c. Providing women with the sense of "Economic autonomy".

5- Women universities an agent of Political change

a. Proactive role in politics: Student unions.

b. Advocacy for women reforms in general: Pakistan a case study.

c. Women active role primordial for "Good Governance".

6- Reshaping health sector, Technological advancement and environment protection

a. Instrumental in population control.

b. Women universities imparting IT, AI

~~courses.~~ Skills

21
c. Advocacy for reforms in climate change: A case study of Greta Thunberg.

7- Way forward

- a. Establishing more women universities in sub-urban areas.
- b. Women centric economic policy & incentives.
- c. Develop political culture conducive for women at national and global level.
- d. concerted ~~effort~~ effort is the need to nullify stigma and taboos toward women education.

8- Conclusion.

Work on paper presentation and handwriting