Contrary to the welcoming behaviour of the British colonialists, Sir Syed Ahmed Khan and his prudent son Syed Mahmood adopted the attitude of equality in rank and status to the Britishers. Everyone is aware of the 1867 Agra Darbar event. Sir Syed got along from this court because there the Indians were provided the lower rank seats. A medal was going to be awarded to Sir Syed Ahmed Khan. Later on, Commissioner Williams of Meerut was given assigned the task of awarding the medal to Sir Syed at Aligarh railway station.
