It seems that Bangladesh's democracy is backsliding. It is because of successive challenges faced by opposition due to Sheikh Hasina's authoritarian government. This predicament of opposition ~~does~~ did not stop yet. Two main parties - which especially are confronting these challenges - are Bangladesh Nationalist Party and Bangladesh Jamaat-i-Islami. Recently, JI is facing the (high court) proceedings of apex court to bar it from upcoming elections.

It is another major example of fall of democracy. Authoritarian governments are the main reasons of decline of democracy. It is suppressing the voice of public. Pakistan is also confronting from these challenges. This emerging predicament needs to be ended; otherwise, layman will always remain suppressed forever. The trend of elite to come in power and his wish to remain in power must be stopped.
